

GOOD INTERNET CHRISTIAN AND BIBLE-RELATED WEBSITES

Jonathan Menn -- jonathanmenn@yahoo.com -- November 2016

Bible-study sites

<http://www.biblos.com/> -- Different Bible versions (including multi-lingual translations), atlases, lexicons, Greek and Hebrew helps, concordance, cross-references, commentaries, and more.

<http://www.biblegateway.com/> -- Multiple versions of the Bible, different study helps, and links to other resources.

<http://www.ntgateway.com/> -- Excellent NT site.

<http://www.greekbible.com/> -- Greek NT; can click on words for definitions and parsing.

www.StepBible.org -- The STEP Bible (Scripture Tools for Every Person) is a bible study library and browser developed by Tyndale House Cambridge that includes a remarkable number of Bible study helps.

<http://e-sword.net/> -- Bibles, commentaries, dictionaries, graphics, and books that can be downloaded.

<http://www.biblestudytools.com/> -- Lots of study tools on lots of subjects.

<http://unbound.biola.edu/> -- Bible searches, multiple Bible versions, and other resources.

<http://www.studylight.org/con/> -- Bibles, commentaries, dictionaries, concordances, and other resources.

<http://biblemaster.com/> -- Bible searches and other resources.

<http://www.bible-researcher.com/> -- Lots of interesting information on the Hebrew and Greek Bibles, history and reviews of multiple English versions, a large number of links to Bible study resources, and more.

<http://executableoutlines.com/> -- Outlines of many books of the Bible, sermon outlines, and many links.

<http://www.textweek.com/scripture.htm> -- The Text This Week contains “conveniently-organized links to a treasure of resources for study, reflection and liturgy pertaining to each week's lectionary texts,” based on the Revised Common Lectionary (which is used in many mainline churches).

<http://www.mun.ca/rels/hrollmann/restmov/texts/asjohnson/cbc/CBC00.HTM> -- An annotated summary of the biblical storyline.

<http://www.bibleworldhistory.com/> -- Time-lines and charts.

<http://www.bible-history.com/> -- Maps, history information, geography, and much other stuff.

<http://www.torreys.org/bible/> -- Links to a host of resources concerning the Bible and the ancient world.

<http://www.tyndale.cam.ac.uk/> -- A host of Bible study resources and links from Tyndale House of England.

Commentaries, Sermons, and Articles—Sites Featuring Multiple Authors

Not everyone will agree with everything on all of these websites, but these contain a wealth of good and helpful materials on many biblical subjects. They are generally from an Evangelical and/or Reformed perspective.

Multi-faceted sites that deal with lots of aspects of Christianity

<http://eclea.net> -- Click on “ECLEA Courses,” which will take you to the page that has ECLEA’s downloadable notes on a host of important subjects.

<http://tbi.trinitycwm.org/> -- Trinity Biblical Institute is a biblical training facility in Uganda. Their “curriculum” page has a comprehensive Christian/Bible-centered set of handouts, pamphlets, books, and teaching materials.

<https://www.biblicaltraining.org/library/overview> -- Biblical Training Institute is a world-class, seminary-level, discipleship program by sound Evangelical and Reformed pastors and theologians to prepare one for an academically sound, real world ministry. It offers courses, articles, books, and more.

<http://thegospelcoalition.org/resources> -- The Gospel Coalition is a great site with lots of articles, books, courses, and audio sermons by good Evangelical and Reformed pastors and theologians.

<http://www.monergism.com/> -- Excellent Reformed site with articles by various authors on multiple biblical/theological subjects.

<http://faithbyhearing.wordpress.com/> -- Faith by Hearing collects and categorizes great Reformed and conservative evangelical audio preaching & teaching that has a high view of God and Scripture.

<http://deeperstudy.com/link/commentaries.html#gospels> -- Index of Online Bible Commentaries. These commentaries are arranged in canonical order; they are basically good, older commentaries (e.g., Matthew Henry, John Calvin, Jamieson, Fausset & Brown) that are no longer subject to copyright protection.

<http://www.mints.edu/index.html> -- MINTS International Seminary. Has downloadable course outlines on biblical, theological, and ministerial studies, church history, and missions.

<http://www.mountainretreatorg.net/> -- Good Reformed site.

<http://www.reformed.org/> -- Site of the Center for Reformed Theology and Apologetics.

<http://www.alliancenet.org/> -- Site of the Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals.

<http://ids.org/> -- Good New Covenant Theology site.

<http://solochristo.com/SC/SoloChristo.htm> -- A New Covenant and Calvinistic website.

<http://www.theologyontheweb.org.uk/> -- The home to 5 websites (Biblical Studies; Theological Studies; Early Church; Medieval Church; and Missiology) which have links to articles and other resources.

<http://www.graceonlineibrary.org/> -- Good site featuring articles from a historic Baptist, Puritan, Reformed, and Calvinistic perspective.

<http://www.leaderu.com/index.html> -- Leadership U. is a project of Christian Leadership Ministries, part of Campus Crusade for Christ, International.

<http://www.garynorth.com/freebooks/sidefrm2.htm> -- Free Books has lots of books and articles from a Calvinistic Reformed point of view, some of which are from a postmillennial or theonomic point of view.

<http://www.beginningwithmoses.org/> -- A good Biblical Theology site, based in the UK.

<http://www.biblicaltheology.ca/> -- A Biblical Theology site of Christian theology professors from Canada.

<http://www.ligonier.org/learn/topics/> -- Ligonier Ministries. Excellent Reformed site with hundreds of articles by well-respected Reformed pastors and teachers, searchable by topic, Scripture, and teacher, and key words.

<http://www.thirdmill.org/> -- Good Evangelical/Reformed site with 1000s of downloadable audio sermons, seminary lessons, questions & answers by topic, and more.

<http://www.crivoice.org/toc.html> -- A decent site from a Wesleyan perspective.

<http://www.ldolphin.org/> -- Lots of articles and links on many topics. Dolphin himself is a dispensationalist, so there is a lot of questionable material, which is not made obvious, as well as good material, on his site.

http://www.scripturestudies.com/complete_index.html -- Verse-by-verse studies of many books of the Bible, plus other things.

<http://www.bethinking.org/> -- bethinking.org aims to bring together the best possible resources for thinking about and communicating the Christian faith. Its goal is to help to prepare all Christians to provide an answer to those who deny the truth of Christianity.

<http://www.probe.org> -- Probe Ministries includes good written and audio materials regarding apologetics, culture, science, and contemporary issues that affect the faith.

<http://christianthinktank.com/> -- This site contains reflections on philosophy, on theology, on spirituality, and apologetics to confront the urgent and contemporary questions of skeptics and believers.

<http://www.veritas.org/Home.aspx> -- Veritas Forum has audio and video speeches and discussions by prominent Christian spokespeople about life's hardest questions and the relevance of Jesus Christ to all of life.

<http://www.9marks.org/> -- 9Marks exists to equip church leaders with a biblical vision and practical resources for displaying God's glory to the nations through healthy churches. The "9 marks" are: (1) Expository Preaching. (2) Biblical Theology. (3) A Biblical Understanding of the Good News. (4) A Biblical Understanding of Conversion. (5) A Biblical Understanding of Evangelism. (6) Biblical Church Membership. (7) Biblical Church Discipline. (8) Biblical Discipleship and Growth. (9) Biblical Church Leadership.

<http://christianaudio.com/> -- Audio books and sermons for download, including a free audio book every month.

<http://onlinebooks.library.upenn.edu/> -- Online Books Page has over 2,000,000 free books online, both Christian and non-Christian, including many in non-English languages.

<http://www.spurgeon.org/~phil/bookmark.htm> -- Annotated links to multiple Christian websites, both good and bad.

Primarily, but not exclusively, apologetics-related <http://www.apologeticspress.org/> -- Lots of articles on apologetics and answers to tough questions.

<http://www.christiancourier.com/> -- Also lots of articles on apologetics and answers to tough questions.

<http://www.carm.org/> -- Apologetics, analyses of different religions (e.g., Islam), and more.

<http://www.str.org/site/PageServer?pagename=homepage> -- Good site featuring apologetics and other material; founded by Greg Koukl.

<http://www.reasonablefaith.org/> -- William Lane Craig's site, primarily related to apologetics.

Primarily historical in nature

<http://www.ccel.org/> -- Historical Christian writings. Other sites that have the writings of the early Christian Fathers include: <http://www.tertullian.org/fathers/index.htm> and <http://www.earlychristianwritings.com/http://64.33.81.65/index.htm> -- The historic creeds of Christendom, including the ancient creeds and those of most denominations.

<http://www.chapellibrary.org/> -- Hundreds of written and audio booklets, tracts, and sermons are downloadable for free. Most are from prior centuries, by authors who have stood the test of time, including Spurgeon (Baptist), Ryle (Anglican), Bunyan (Independent), Bonar (Presbyterian), the Puritans, and more.

Primarily, but not exclusively, sermon-related <http://www.proctrust.org.uk/> -- Proclamation Trust of the UK exists "to encourage ministry that seeks above all to teach the Bible as God's Word relevant for today." It's emphasis is on good preaching, and it includes lots of downloadable audio sermons as well as written articles.

<http://www.sermonindex.net/> -- Thousands of sermons in text, audio, video, and podcast format.

<http://www.sermonaudio.com/main.asp> -- Thousands of audio and video sermons from conservative churches worldwide. They can be searched by Bible passage, topic, speaker, and date.

<http://www.discipleshiplibrary.com/index.php> -- Thousands of audio (and some text) messages available for download, and searchable by topic, speaker, and Scripture. This site also contains links to numerous other ministries and resources in multiple areas.

Articles, Books, and Sermons—Sites of Good Individual Authors (alphabetical order by last name)

<http://www.ccel.org/ccel/calvin/commentaries.i.html> -- Commentaries on most of the books of the Bible by John Calvin.

<http://edwards.yale.edu/> -- The writings and sermons of Jonathan Edwards, America's greatest theologian.

<http://www.gospelinlife.com/> -- This site has many free (downloadable) audio sermons and articles by pastor Timothy J. Keller of Redeemer Presbyterian Church, New York City. Keller has an almost conversational tone and a wry sense of humor, and I have been amazed by the depth of insight in every one of his sermons.

<http://meredithkline.com/> -- Writings and audio downloads from Meredith Kline, a professor for 50 years at Westminster Theological Seminary and Reformed Theological Seminary.

<http://mppc.org/learn/sermons> -- Sermons in text, audio, and video format by pastor John Ortberg (and others) of Menlo Park Presbyterian Church, Menlo Park, California. In terms of style and substance, he is sort of half-way between Tim Keller and Andy Stanley.

<http://www.godrules.net/library/owen/owen.htm> -- The writings and sermons of John Owen, the greatest of the Puritans.

<http://www.desiringgod.org/> -- John Piper's website, with a vast number of articles and audio (downloadable) sermons; basically anything he does is worth it.

<http://kimriddlebarger.squarespace.com/> -- Writings and audio downloads from Kim Riddlebarger, pastor of Christ Reformed Church, Anaheim, CA, concentrating on Reformed theology and Eschatology.

<http://www.northpoint.org/podcasts> -- Audio sermons from Andy Stanley of North Point Community Church in Atlanta, Georgia. He is an animated and good preacher who tends to focus on more topical, "life issues" sermons.

Scholarly Theology Journals

US, UK, and Canada (alphabetical order by title)

<http://www.biblicaltheology.com/> -- American Journal of Biblical Theology includes expository commentaries on the books of the Bible, peer-reviewed research articles that explore many of the doctrines and issues concerning biblical theology, and book reviews.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_auss_01.php -- Andrews University Seminary Studies (Also available at: http://www.auss.info/auss_publication.php?other_through=1&first_through=&nr_records=&hash=&journal=&pref_disp_num=&status_search=&action=Search&search=Search -- Andrews University is a Seventh Day Adventist school, but frequently good articles appear in the journal).

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_anvil_01.php -- Anvil is an Anglican Evangelical Journal for theology and mission.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_ashland-theological-journal_01.php -- Ashland Theological Journal is the journal of Ashland Theological Seminary located in Ohio, US. It is an evangelical seminary, originally founded by The Brethren Church.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_bq_01.php -- Baptist Quarterly contains a wealth of rare material on Baptist history, missions and ecclesiology, and includes many articles on such notable figures as William Carey, John Bunyan, Charles H. Spurgeon and Richard Baxter. It is a continuation of the journal Transactions of the Baptist Historical Society (http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_tbhs_01.php).

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_brt.php -- Baptist Review of Theology.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_bible-translator_01.php -- The Bible Translator published by the United Bible Societies, deals primarily with translation issues and meaning of words/phrases.

<http://www.ibr-bbr.org/bulletin-biblical-research> -- Bulletin for Biblical Research. Sponsored by the Institute for Biblical Research, which is an organization of evangelical Christian scholars with specialties in Old and New Testament and in ancillary disciplines.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_cbtj.php -- Calvary Baptist Theological Journal. Published between 1985-1998 by Calvary Baptist Seminary of Lansdale, PA (it is now out of existence).

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_cbrfj.php -- Christian Brethren Research Fellowship Journal and its successor, Christian Brethren Review, were published in the United Kingdom by the Christian Brethren Church from 1963-1989.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_churchman_os.php -- Churchman. An Evangelical Journal published since 1879 by the Church Society, which exists to uphold biblical teaching and to promote and defend the character of the Church of England as a reformed and national Church.

<http://www.credomag.com/> -- Credo Magazine is an online journal that is Evangelical, Reformational, and Baptist.

<http://www.denverseminary.edu/resources/denver-journal/> -- Denver Journal is a review journal. It aims to include reviews of all recent and significant books and published media relating to the major fields of biblical and theological studies: Old Testament, New Testament, Church History, Systematic Theology, World Christianity, Pastoral Ministry and Evangelism, Counseling, Philosophy of Religion, Education Ministries and Administration, Homiletics and Speech, and Youth and Family Ministries.

<http://www.directionjournal.org/index.html> -- Direction: A Mennonite Brethren Forum addresses biblical, theological, historical, ethical, and church-related issues. Direction is supported by Mennonite Brethren higher education institutions in the United States and Canada.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_ecclesia-reformanda.php -- Ecclesia Reformanda was a British Reformed journal that existed between 2009-2011.

http://biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_european-journal-theology_03.php -- European Journal of Theology includes articles in English, German, and French.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_evangelical_quarterly.php -- Evangelical Quarterly is a well-established academic journal first published in 1929, including articles on a wide variety of biblical and theological topics. From Volume 81 onwards there will be a 5 year delay before articles appear on-line.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_expositor-series-1.php -- The Expositor was published from 1875-1914 and contained articles by the leading scholars of its day.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_expository-times_01.php -- Expository Times combines an interest in all pastoral matters, practical and theoretical with the latest international biblical and theological scholarship.

<http://www.affinity.org.uk/foundations-issues/foundations-archive> -- Foundations is the Journal of the British Evangelical Council, is now on-line in PDF format.

<http://wwwFOUNDERS.org/journal/index.html> -- Founders Journal is a quarterly journal from a Baptist perspective (Southern Baptist Convention).

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_grace-theological-journal.php -- Grace Theological Journal is the journal of Grace Theological Seminary of Indiana, US.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_haddington-house-journal_01.php -- Haddington House Journal, from Canada, is a “theological journal which endeavours to have a wide accessibility and to consider the needs of laity, ministers and students of theology while striving to have a global ethos.” Its emphasis appears to be on church history, missiology, and biblical studies. It is also available here: <http://haddingtonhouse.org/>

<http://www.ijfm.org/index.htm> -- International Journal of Frontier Missiology is the official journal of the International Society of Frontier Missiology. It looks at fruitful, practical aspects of missions around the world with a particular emphasis on missions to Muslims.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_ibs-01.php -- Irish Biblical Studies was published by Union Theological College of Belfast, Northern Ireland.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_jbtm-01.php -- Journal for Baptist Theology and Ministry is published by the Baptist Center for Theology and Ministry, which is a research institute of New Orleans Baptist theological Seminary.

<http://cbmw.org/journal/> -- Journal for Biblical Manhood & Womanhood deals with biblical issues related to men and women, husbands and wives from a “complementarian” viewpoint.

<http://www2.luthersem.edu/ctrf/JCTR/default.htm> -- Journal for Christian Theological Research was published from 1996-2007 from a mainstream Christian perspective.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_jesot_01.php -- Journal for the Evangelical Study of the Old Testament (JESOT) is a peer-reviewed journal devoted to the academic and evangelical study of the Old Testament. The journal seeks to fill a need in academia by providing a venue for high-level scholarship on the Old Testament from an evangelical standpoint. Also available here: <http://jesot.org/>

<http://www.jgrchj.net/home> -- Journal of Greco-Roman Christianity and Judaism is a very scholarly journal with an international editorial board.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_jkamt-01.php -- Journal of Korean American Ministries & Theology

<http://www.atsjats.org/publication.php?journal=1> -- Journal of the Adventist Theological Society.

http://www.etsjets.org/JETS_Online_Archive -- Journal of the Evangelical Theological Society (also available at: http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_bets.php).

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_jicsc-01.php -- Journal of the Irish Christian Study Centre (1983-1994).

http://theologicalstudies.org.uk/articles_jisca_01.php -- Journal of the International Society of Christian Apologetics is a peer-reviewed journal published annually with the support of the International Society of Christian Apologetics to foster scholarly discussion of ideas among evangelical scholars relevant to the defense of the Christian Faith. It includes articles from a wide variety of apologetically relevant fields, including philosophy, ethics, theology, biblical studies, history, and missions.

<http://www.mabts.edu/resources/publications/archives> -- Journal of the Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary located in the Memphis, TN area.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_jts-os_03.php -- Journal of Theological Studies is an evangelical and reformed journal. The original series ran from 1899-1949 and the new series began in 1950, continuing to the present day. The complete table of contents and selected articles are online.

<http://www.kerux.com/> -- Kerux is the journal of Northwest Theological Seminary (Escondido, CA). It prints biblical-theological material in the Reformed/Calvinistic tradition.

<http://www.tms.edu/JournalIntro.aspx> -- The Master's Seminary Journal is the journal of The master's Seminary in California, USA. It is evangelical (and rather dispensational) in orientation.

<http://www.mcmaster.ca/mjtm/> -- McMaster Journal of Theology and Ministry is an electronic and print journal published by McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada.

<http://www.midamerica.edu/journal> -- Mid-America Journal of Theology is the journal of the Mid-America Reformed Seminary of Dyer, Indiana.

<http://www.missionfrontiers.org/> -- Mission Frontiers is a bi-monthly magazine of Frontier Ventures. Mission Frontiers has been in circulation since 1979, providing innovative insights on a wide range of topics in missiology. Mission Frontiers is dedicated to fostering and supporting a global movement to establish indigenous and self-reproducing Church-Planting Movements among the 7000 unreached peoples (ethnic groups) of the world

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_ptr-01.php -- Princeton Theological Review was published between 1903 and 1929 and each issue has lengthy articles covering a range of subjects including theology, biographical studies, church history and Christian missions.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_whs_01.php -- Proceedings of the Wesley Historical Society, which was founded in 1893 for the advancement of interest in the history of all branches of the Methodist Church.

<http://www.prca.org/prtj/index.html> -- Protestant Reformed Theological Journal. Affiliated with the Protestant Reformed Churches in America.

<http://www.theology.edu/more.htm> -- Quartz Hill Journal of Theology is an online journal of Quartz Hill School of Theology, a ministry of Quartz Hill Community Church, California, USA, affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention.

<http://www.quodlibet.net/> -- Quodlibet online journal.

<http://www.reformation21.org/> -- Reformation 21 is the online magazine of The Alliance of Confessing Evangelicals (www.alliancenet.org), an organization established in order to call the church to a reformation that recovers clarity and conviction about the great evangelical truths of the gospel and to encourage their proclamation in our contemporary context.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_ref-rev-03.php#vol13 -- Reformation & Revival.

<http://thirdmill.org/magazine/> -- RPM Magazine is the online magazine of Third Millennium Ministries.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_sbet-01.php -- Scottish Bulletin of Evangelical Theology.

<http://www.sbts.edu/resources/publications/journal-of-theology/> -- Southern Baptist Journal of Theology.

<http://www.preciousheart.net/ti/> -- Testamentum Imperium is an international theological journal devoted to the concept that the eternal security of the Christian believer is a Great Testament of the church. The plan is to provide an international forum for theologians and students of the Bible to defend the eternal security of the Christian believer from a wide variety of Christian perspectives, traditions, and countries. It also deals with other issues.

<http://thegospelcoalition.org/publications> -- Themelios (an international evangelical theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith. Its primary audience is theological students and pastors, though scholars read it as well. It was formerly a print journal operated by RTSF/UCCF in the UK, and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008).

<http://www.theologian.org.uk/> -- The Theologian: The Internet Journal for Integrated Theology is dedicated to presenting theological and pastoral resources of the highest quality to the wider church over the internet. It is nondenominational and evangelical. Contributors are from Anglican, Baptist, Presbyterian, Free Church and other backgrounds.

<http://www.tyndale.cam.ac.uk/index.php?page=tyndale-bulletin> -- Tyndale Bulletin.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_vox_evangelica.php -- Vox Evangelica (published by the London School of Theology).

<http://wesley.nnu.edu/sermons-essays-books/wesleyan-theological-journal-1966-2010/> -- Wesleyan Theological Journal. The journal of the Wesleyan Theological Society.

<http://www.xenos.org/ministries/crossroads/OnlineJournal/index.htm> -- Xenos Online Journal is a publication of Xenos Christian Fellowship, an evangelical church in Ohio, USA.

Journals from Other Countries (alphabetical order by title)

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_ajet-01.php -- Africa Journal of Evangelical Theology is a scholarly evangelical theological journal offering articles and book reviews relating to theology and ministry in Africa. AJET is published twice a year by the staff of Scott Theological College in Kenya.

<http://www.bsw.org/Biblica/> -- Biblica (published by the Pontifical Institute in Rome, this journal is dedicated to biblical studies on the Old and New Testament, and intertestamentary literature, and covers fields of research, such as exegesis, philology, and history).

<http://www.mhs.no/?89> -- Bulletin for Old Testament Studies in Africa (since 2006 it is known as BOTSA Electronic Forum). BOTSA aims at being a forum for exchange of ideas and information about OT studies in Africa. Articles comment on pedagogical, methodological and research political questions related to OT studies in Africa, and it contains notices on books and conferences. The index for the articles published between 1996-2006 is located at: <http://www.mhs.no/aotp?30>

<http://www.febe.edu.sg/burningbush.htm> -- The Burning Bush is the theological journal of the Far Eastern Bible College, Singapore. It is from a Bible-Presbyterian perspective.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_caribbean-journal-theology_01.php -- Caribbean Journal of Evangelical Theology. The academic journal of Caribbean Evangelical Theological Association, Jamaica Theological Seminary, and Caribbean Graduate School of Theology. Publication ceased after vol. 10 (1996).

<http://www.pctii.org/cybertab.html> -- Cyberjournal for Pentecostal-Charismatic Research. Sponsored by Pentecostal-Charismatic Theology Inquiry International whose database is designed for research specialists: graduate students (Th.D. and Ph.D.), professors and independent research scholars with accredited, terminal degrees. The PCTII database includes over 600 scholars spread across six continents.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_european-journal-theology_01.php -- European Journal of Theology is a unique journal reflecting the new Europe. Founded and edited with the aid of scholars and church leaders from many European countries, it offers to ministers, students and theologians a new European focus for their theology. Publishing articles and reviews in German, English and French, the journal seeks to reflect the diversity of European evangelical theology. The entire table of contents is at the above web address and many, but not all, of the articles themselves.

<http://www.bsw.org/Filologia-Neotestamentaria/> -- Filologia Neotestamentaria (published by the University of Cordoba, Spain, the focus of this journal is New Testament Greek philology, namely textual criticism, grammar, semantics, and lexicography).

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_honeycomb.php -- Honeycomb is a bilingual Khmer/English Theological Journal originally published in Cambodia from 2000-2004.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_ijt_01.php -- Indian Journal of Theology is a bi-annual scholarly journal published jointly by Serampore College Theology Department and Bishop's College, Kolkata, India.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_melanesian-journal-theology_01.php -- Melanesian Journal of Theology is published on behalf of the Melanesian Association of Theological Schools by the Christian Leaders Training College of Papua New Guinea. It emphasizes theological topics related to Melanesia.

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_neotestamentica-01.php?utm_source=subscribers&utm_campaign=061424a269-Theology+on+the+Web+News+Update++Nov.+%2F+Dec.+2015&utm_medium=email&utm_term=0_6d6c7759d8-061424a269-61389561 -- Neotestamentica is an academic journal published under the auspices of the New Testament Society of South Africa / Nuwe-Testamentiese Werkgemeenskap van Suid-Afrika (NTSSA).

http://www.biblicalstudies.org.uk/articles_theological-review-01.php -- Theological Review is the journal of the Near East School of Theology, Beirut, Lebanon. The table of contents is online and the articles will be posted as time permits.

Directories of multiple journals

<http://www.tyndale.cam.ac.uk/index.php?page=periodicals> -- Periodicals available through Tyndale House. This is currently the largest list on web of online academic Biblical and Theological journals.

<http://www.doaj.org/doaj?func=subject&cpid=16> -- Directory of Open Access Journals (free, full text scholarly journals covering many subjects and languages).

<http://www.theologyontheweb.org.uk/journals.html> -- Journals available through Theology On The Web. Many of these are the table of contents only, but not the actual articles themselves.

http://faculty.gordon.edu/hu/bi/Ted_Hildebrandt/ -- Good, scholarly, articles from academic journals posted by a professor at Gordon-Conwell Seminary.

Articles and Sermons in non-English Languages

<https://www.biblicaltraining.org/> -- Biblical Training Institute with courses and materials in several languages, including Swahili and Arabic.

<http://gospeltranslations.org/> -- Articles by good evangelical authors that have been translated into multiple languages, including Kiswahili, French, Arabic, Amharic, Hindi, and others.

<http://thegospelcoalition.org/resources> -- A great site with lots of articles, books, courses, and audio sermons by good Evangelical and Reformed pastors and theologians, including materials in Amharic, Arabic, French, Hindi, Kiswahili, and others.

<http://www.desiringgod.org/> -- John Piper's website, with a vast number of articles and audio (downloadable) sermons, including materials in Arabic, Amharic, French, Kiswahili, and others.

<http://www.readthegospel.com/step1.html> -- The basic Gospel message in several languages, including French and Hindi.

<http://eclea.net> -- Click on "ECLEA Courses," which will take you to the page that has ECLEA's downloadable notes on a host of important subjects, some of which have been translated into Kiswahili, Kinyarwanda, Kirundi, Alur, and Luganda. Other languages will be added, and resources are continually being added as they are translated.

<http://www.thirdmill.org/> -- Good Evangelical/Reformed site that includes materials in Arabic and a few other languages.

<http://www.carm.org/> -- Primarily an apologetics site; has a few materials in French and some other languages.

<http://www.heartcrymissionary.com/sermons> -- Sermons from Heart Cry Missionary Society in several languages, including Arabic (but no other African languages).

<http://www.salahallah.com/> -- Tracts directed to Muslims, including in Kiswahili, Arabic, and French.

Websites dedicated to informing about and answering Islam

See Christianity and Islam: Theological Essentials (on the ECLEA website:

<http://www.eclea.net/courses.html#islam>) which gives an overview of Islam and then focuses on the four essentials of Christianity and Islam: Jesus and Muhammad; sin and salvation according to Christianity and Islam; Yahweh and Allah; the Bible and the Qur'an; and bridging the divide between Islam and the gospel, primarily by using the Qur'an itself and Islamic culture and practices. Multiple Islamic sources are cited and quoted from so that Islamic beliefs are fairly stated "in their own words," and the web addresses for those sources that are online are given so you can look them up yourself.

<http://answering-islam.org/> -- Answering Islam. Good subpages include: "A Comparative Index to Islam" -

<http://www.answering-islam.org/Index/index.html>; "A Dictionary of Islam" - <http://answering-islam.org/Books/Hughes/>; and "A Dictionary of Christian Answers to Muslim Questions" -

<http://www.answering-islam.org/Dictionary/index.html>

<http://www.jihadwatch.org/> -- Jihad Watch. A good overview of Islam on this site is "Islam 101" -

<http://www.jihadwatch.org/islam-101>

<http://www.answeringmuslims.com/> -- Answering Muslims. This site is a Christian apologetics website dedicated to responding to the questions, objections, and arguments of Muslims. The site is run by Christian debaters, lecturers, and writers who have a special interest in Islam.

<http://www.islam-watch.org/> -- Islam Watch. This is a good site in that all the articles are by ex-Muslims.

<http://www.unchangingword.com/index.php> -- Evidence for God's Unchanging Word includes videos and articles refuting the major claims that Muslims make against the Bible and Christianity, designed to appeal to Muslims (possibly by ex-Muslims).

<http://www.debate.org.uk/> -- Debate.org.uk. This site is owned by the Hyde Park Christian fellowship – an informal network of Christian researchers in the UK, whose primary interest is the academic study of all issues relevant to Islam and Christianity.

<http://www.the-good-way.com/> -- The Good Way. This site consists of books and booklets by Christians and former Muslims regarding many aspects of Islam.

<http://path-of-peace.org/> -- Path of Peace. Path-of-Peace exists for Muslims who desire a deeper understanding of the truth of God's revelations to man. Materials include references from the Tawrat, Zabur, and Injil as well as the Qur'an.

<http://radicaltruth.net/> -- Radical Truth. Our mission is to equip the body of Christ with the training necessary to effectively engage Muslims with the gospel of Jesus Christ and to remove stumbling blocks to a Muslim accepting the gospel. This site also has articles on most of the important issues.

<http://thereligionofpeace.com/> -- The Religion of Peace. This site concentrates on documenting and dealing with the violent and jihad aspects of Islam.

http://cit-online.org/r4m/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=45&Itemid=54 --

Resources4Missions by the Center for Intercultural Training. Features links to many other websites concerning Islam.

<http://www.evangelicalresources.org/islam.shtml> -- Evangelical Resources. This site lists lots of other websites concerning Islam, including descriptions of the sites and their web addresses.

<http://www.salahallah.com/> -- Tracts directed to Muslims, including in Kiswahili, Arabic, and French.

<http://lifechallenge-assistance.org/> -- Life Challenge Assistance (LCA) is a ministry seeking contact with all Christians who desire to obey Christ regarding the Great Commission and are willing to reach Muslims for Christ in a specific area. It has a particular focus on Africa. It includes multiple books, pamphlets, research papers, and training materials that can be downloaded.